“Savory aromas of freshly cut herbs enchant the nose alongside white peach, kumquat zest and melon. Firm texture, an amalgam of orchard fruit forest floor and dried hay present as an elegant whole with restrained intensity and finesse. Pair with arugula rosemary chicken, and pesto pasta.” 92 Best Buy Wine Enthusiast Oct. 2026

Château de la Ragotière

La Petite Etoile

- 100% Melon de Bourgogne
- Granite soil
- 45 hectoliters per hectare.
- 40 years old vines.
- Aged of fine lees for 10 months in 10 hectoliters terracotta ovoid vats (amphora)
- Storage: 5 to 10 years
- Perfect with scallops, grilled fish, crab, lobster and white meat as an Aperitif
- Organic certified AB

"A ripe and creamy textured wine, this has density from the lees aging (sur lie). That balances acidity and lemon flavors. There is a touch of pepper giving the wine an extra tang." Roger Voss, Vintage 2020

VALLET 2020

- 100% Melon de Bourgogne
- Late mica schist soil
- Hillside, south / south east orientation
- 40 hectoliters per hectare.
- 45 years old vines.
- Aged of fine lees for 43 months
- Storage: 8 to 12 years
- Perfect with Scallops, Seabass fish, lobsters, white meat or comté cheese

'This wine from Vallet has been aged for three years. That gives its richness a boost and introduces minerality, spice and intensity. The wine is packed with fruit and tightly textured.'

92/100 Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast

'Expressive aromas of forest floor, white-button mushroom, freshly sliced yellow apple and dried white blossom enchant the nose. The palate echoes with more reserved intensity, alongside more subtle flavors of hay, turned earth, and crushed shells.'
